

NEWS OF CITY AND COUNTY CONDENSED

G. Hartwell Kelley, manager of the Kelley mill at Prairie Creek, was transacting business in this city yesterday.

Mrs. C. R. Carter and Miss Belle Chitty, after a pleasant visit to their sister, Mrs. J. F. Hill, returned to their home at Micanopy yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Cutler returned to their home in this city yesterday. Mr. Cutler spent a few days taking in the sights of Jamestown Exposition, and on his return home he was joined by Mrs. Cutler, who has been in Asheville for the past summer. Friends of Mrs. Cutler are glad to welcome her home again, for there has been, they declare, a blank in the social circles during her absence.

The Atlantic Plumbing Company, Simpson Bros., have a change of advertisement in this issue to which the attention of those who are contemplating installing a system of plumbing is invited. These young men are not only efficient, but they are hustlers, and are "on the square" when it comes to a deal. Their prices are reasonable, and those who have tried them declare their work is of the highest order. They have come to Gainesville to live, and would not, if they could, put a "bad job" into a house.

W. E. Kennedy, a well-known orange grower and trucker of Evinston, was in the city for a few hours on business yesterday. Mr. Kennedy has recently sold his place, which comprises a small but handsome grove, to C. M. Holloway of Kentucky, who expects to make that his winter home. Mrs. Kennedy has not yet decided upon his future movements. He may remain in that vicinity, or he may decide to go further South and engage in trucking exclusively on an extensive plan. He is a most progressive young man, and the people of Evinston would regret very much to lose him.

Among the visitors to this city yesterday was Hon. John G. Dampier of Hague, chairman of the Board of County Commissioners of Alachua county, and a man who is interesting himself a great deal in public affairs at this time, especially good roads. Mr. Dampier believes that good roads are the proper thing for any community, and has his heart set on giving the people of the whole county something in that line which will not only prove of benefit to them, but to their children, their grand-children and their great-grand-children. In his effort he has the co-operation of the best people of this county.

How to Cure a Cold.

The question of how to cure a cold without unnecessary loss of time is one in which we are all more or less interested, for the quicker a cold is gotten rid of the less the danger of pneumonia and other serious diseases. Mr. B. W. L. Hall of Waverly, Va., has used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for years and says: "I firmly believe Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to be absolutely the best preparation on the market for colds. I have recommended it to my friends and they all agree with me." For sale by all druggists.

Ladies' Missionary Society.

The Ladies' Missionary Society of the First Presbyterian church will meet at the church this afternoon at 3:30 o'clock, at which a full attendance is desired. Country Korea leader, Mrs. L. C. Lynch.

It is earnestly hoped that a good crowd will be present at this meeting.

Julius Caesar

Was a man of nerve, but sickness left its mark and he became aged before his time. Sickness is often caused by a torpid liver. Herbine will regulate your liver and give you health. Mrs. Carrie Austin, Hollon, Kansas, writes: "I consider Herbine the best medicine I ever heard of. I am never without it." Sold by W. M. Johnson.

IS AGAIN IN HARNESS.

Gordon M. Wienges Again Becomes Office Deputy to Sheriff Fennell.

After an absence from this city of nearly five years, during which time he was with his family in McBeath, S. C., Gordon M. Wienges has returned to Gainesville, and has again taken up the reins as office deputy to Sheriff L. W. Fennell.

Mr. Wienges knows the profession in which he has again embarked from A to Z. For twenty years he was constantly employed as office deputy, being under Sheriffs S. H. Wienges, Sam Tucker and L. W. Fennell. Five years ago, owing to the ill health of his wife in South Carolina, he relinquished his position to go to his family; but his good wife having improved, he has come back to resume his old position, which will be gratifying news to the people of Alachua county.

Mr. Wienges is welcomed home again, and his old friends will be glad to meet him at the sheriff's desk.

A Word to The Wise.

The pioneer manager of the South, Mr. C. W. Park, who has faithfully catered to your amusement for several years, and who has never broken faith with you, will open in Gainesville next Monday, November 4, for one week's engagement with his new C. W. Park Dramatic Company of sterling artists.

The new company consists of 40 people, actors, actresses and auxiliaries, making it the strongest dramatic company that has ever appeared in Gainesville.

The C. W. Park show is always strictly moral and refined, and on this visit are going to surpass all former efforts. All the plays are the latest New York successes and are produced with all the original scenic and electrical effects. Gorgeous costumes—beautiful music.

The vaudeville artists are the cream of the vaudeville profession.

On next Monday night Mr. Park will select one of his best productions and trusts that a full house will greet the new company.

Although the company has been enlarged, the same prices will prevail: children 25 cents, adults 35 cents.

Micanopy Pastor Pounded.

Editor Sun: Yesterday afternoon the inmates of the Methodist parsonage in Micanopy were very greatly and yet pleasantly surprised by a rich and heavy pounding given them by members of all denominations in town.

This pounding consisted of a large number of valuable packages amounting to many dollars and some silver coins besides.

The ladies deserve special credit for this token of appreciation for their pastor's services, as they took the lead in this work.

The gentlemen also cooperated very fully with them in making the pounding such a success, for which we feel profoundly thankful.

May God make the pastor and his family a rich spiritual blessing to those who have been so kind to them.

Fraternally,

Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has been used for children's teething. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, cures wind colic, and is the best remedy for diarrhoea.

An Ounce of Prevention is Worth a Pound of Cure. I have known of many cases of cholera which have been averted by the use of the best remedy ever known better—Brooklyn Times.

WOMEN IN HOSPITALS

Experiences of Mrs. Rockwood and Miss Tierney

MISS MARGARET TIERNEY

MRS. CHAS. A. ROCKWOOD

A large proportion of the operations performed in our hospitals are upon women and girls for some organic trouble.

Why should this be the case?

Because they have neglected themselves, as every one of these patients in the hospital beds had plenty of warning in those dragging sensations, pains at left or right of abdomen, backaches, nervous exhaustion, inflammation, ulceration, displacements, and other organic weaknesses.

All of these symptoms are indications of an unhealthy condition of the female system and if not heeded the penalty has to be paid by a dangerous operation. When these symptoms manifest themselves, do not drag along until you are obliged to go to the hospital and submit to an operation—but remember that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from native roots and herbs, has saved hundreds of women from surgical operations.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, has cured more cases of feminine ills than any other one remedy. Such letters as the following are constantly being received by Mrs. Pinkham to prove our claims.

Mrs. C. A. Rockwood, teacher of Parliamentary Law, of 58 Free St., Fredonia, N. Y., writes:

"For years I suffered with female trouble. It was decided that an operation was necessary, and although I submitted to a serious operation my sufferings continued, until Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound was recommended and it proved a marvelous remedy, so quickly did it restore my health. I cannot thank you sufficiently for the good it has done me."

Miss Margaret Tierney, of No. 328 W. 25th Street, New York, writes:

"When only eighteen years of age our physician decided that an operation was necessary to permit of my womanly organs performing their natural functions. My mother objected and being urged by a relative to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound did so. I soon improved in health, the proper conditions were established and I am well and strong, thanks to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound."

No other remedy has such unqualified endorsement as Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. No other remedy in the world has such a record of cures of female ills.

Mrs. Pinkham's Standing Invitation to Women

Women suffering from any form of female weakness are invited to promptly communicate with Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass. From the symptoms given, the trouble may be located and the quickest and surest way of recovery advised. Out of her vast volume of experience in treating female ills Mrs. Pinkham probably has the very knowledge that may help your case. Her advice is free and always helpful.
